

HOOKER HAPPENINGS

Crooked River Rug Hookers

September 2023

I hope everyone got the chance to view the showcase at Porter Library for the month of August. Rugs hooked by CRRH members were displayed. Thanks to Sue Knight for once again organizing this.

Crooked River Rug Hookers are blessed with so much talent.

If you attended the rug show at Sauder Village last month, you may have seen that both Connie Bradley and Sybil Osicka had rugs in the Feature Exhibit - Golden Age of Illustrated Fairy Tales. This is a rug exhibit that is touring the country.

Sibyl's entry was Goose Girl.

Connie's was Thumbelina Meets a Mouse.

Patty Cassidy had two rugs in the Storybooks: Alida Akers Art group exhibit.

BIG CONGRATULATIONS TO THE FOLLOWING MEMBERS!!!

Kim Hirt won the People's Choice Award in the Fruit/Floral category.

Roberta Square won the People's Choice Award in the Oriental/Crewel/Geometric category.

Roberta was unaware of her award until her rug was returned to her at the guild meeting. The joy on her face is priceless and was captured in a picture by Doreen Butler. (Roberta on the right, Pat Politsky on the left)

I am sure other guild members had rugs in the show and I apologize that I did not recognize you. It is hard to take in all the rugs in the show, see who hooked them and photograph them!

I have a friend looking to purchase a Snapdragon frame. If anyone has one to sell, please let me know.

Happy Hooking.
Lauren

PRESIDENT MUSINGS

Happy Labor Day. By the time we have our next meeting it will be Fall! With Fall comes the really busy time of fall festivals and picnics, clearing the gardens and the canning/freezing of the vegetable garden produce. I hope everyone did not have too much to clean up after the rain we received here last Wednesday. I think I finally got all the water mopped up in my basement. I was lucky most of my things on the floor were in plastic bins. Only one box of books had to go in the trash bin.

This is a busy month for our guild. We have a two-day workshop with Linda Powell September 21 & 22, that is Thursday and Friday, followed by Friday evening set up for Hooktoberfest. Then Saturday, September 23 is Hooktoberfest. Let us have a Hooking Good Time!

Sampler Project

Thank you, Kim for the lesson on dry felting and couching techniques. I have lots of red roving to use to make candy canes.

Next up is Rita Thomas. She has lots of ideas. This time she is going to share how to do "pleated circles". So much to learn and so little time.

Demonstrations in September

If you like demonstrating your craft to encourage others, these are the places I will be spinning, weaving, hooking or braiding. Space can be a bit tight so please check with me to make sure there is room.

Sunday-Sundays at the Farm-At the Brunswick Historical Farm, except on September 17.

Saturday, September 16, Weymouth Historical Day. At Weymouth Preservation Society School House

Sunday September 17, Hudson Historical Society. at Case-Barlow Farm.

Donation Items

Thank you to all who have brought items for my various collections. I thought some of you might like to know what they are for:

Can tabs-go to the Porter Library

Pill bottles-I give to the Girl Scouts in Brunswick-They give them to Doctors without Borders for them to send medications home with patients.

Egg cartons-Are given to the Brunswick High School. They are building a soundproof room. What they do not use will go to the Food Pantry. They get eggs on large pallets that need to be divided up to send home with people.

Tin Cans-I have a friend that makes figures out of the cans. What he does not use, he does recycle.
