

HOOKER HAPPENINGS

Crooked River Rug Hookers

December 2022

December? Really? I know I say that every month and the older I get, the faster the months go. I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving. We, as Americans, have much to be thankful for. May God continue to bless us.

I am knee deep in Christmas boxes! I am pretty much the crazy Christmas lady with more tree and Santas than I can count. Every year I ask myself why I continue to do what I do, but when it is all done, even I am amazed at how many decorations I have.

Please remember the reason for the season. Merry Christmas!
May all your Christmas dreams come true.

xoxo

President's Musings

Well I attended my second workshop on Rug Hooking. I had my first last summer at Convergence in Knoxville. I really enjoyed it. But, this shading class with Kim was really great and I feel I learned a lot, and I am looking forward to learning even more from all of you. It was so great to have the time to work on the project at the meeting and to get some pointers from you all. I sometimes do not know what question to ask to discover what I need to know, or even if need to ask. So if do something or say something wrong or something I do makes you go where did she get that idea, because of the interpretation that I put on what was said. So do not be afraid to correct me. I spent 12 years working in the theatre and you all know those people are nuts and look at the world upside down and backwards.

DEMONSTRATIONS

I would like to thank you all for volunteering for the sudden demonstrations that popped up at the Bay Village Historical Society.
We should have a lot of fun.

DISPLAY AT THE LIBRARY

Susan is moving right along with planning for the display. Susan passed out a form for us to fill out if you are going to bring items to go in the display. We are hoping it will bring in new members, from the area.

Textiles and Tea

Little late but if you want to see the art work of Sheila Hicks, who was/is on the Textiles and Tea, Zoom meeting November 29. HGA does record them so you can listen to her interview. Some of her work is on display on the 2nd floor of the Cleveland Museum of art. While up there go see the Tapestries.

Cheers,

Nancy
